BORROWING PROCEDURES

Library resources can be made available by contacting the above-mentioned ANCHOR members who will transport the requested material(s) from the library to the borrower via an ANCHOR program or some other means. Materials may also be borrowed directly from The Cecilian Center for Earth, Arts and Spirit. If borrowed directly, print title of book or periodical, your name, full address, phone number, date, on the designated list located on the Alliance bookcase. Materials are expected to be returned within a three-week period. There is a limit of three selections to be borrowed at any one time.

First time borrowers, please fill out a Registration Card.

RETURN OF ALLIANCE BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

Library resources may be returned to the above-mentioned contact persons. They may also be dropped off at The Cecilian Center for Earth, Arts and Spirit during library hours. Please place returned books and periodicals in the designated area on the Alliance bookcase and record the date of return with the information previously entered on the “borrowing” list. A library volunteer will reshelve resources.
