BORROWING PROCEDURES

Library books can be made available by contacting the above-mentioned ANCHOR members who will transport the requested material(s) from the library to the borrower via an ANCHOR program or some other means. Materials may also be borrowed directly from The Cecilian Center for Earth, Arts and Spirit. If borrowed directly, print name, phone number, and date on the “check-out” card inserted in the pouch inside the back cover of the book. Please place this card in the designated basket located on the Cecilian Center bookcase. Books are expected to be returned within a three-week period. Selections are limited to three books at any one time.

First time borrowers, please fill out a Registration Card.

RETURN OF ANCHOR BOOKS

Library resources may be returned to the above-mentioned contact persons. They may also be dropped off at The Cecilian Center for Earth, Arts and Spirit during library hours. Please place returned books in the designated area on the Cecilian Center bookcase. “Check-out” cards will be placed in the book pouch and shelved by a library volunteer.
